

Larry Coxe

Larry Coxe (nickname Big Lar, pending) joined the ranks of competitive masters runners at the 2007 inaugural Eugene half marathon with time of 1:27:15, good for second place in age group, after flirting with sub- 40 in several Eugene area 10K races. Despite a footfall worthy of Sasquatch and the breathing pattern of an obscene caller, he still somehow manages to turn in respectable age group race times, and hopes, when fully recovered from a late 2007 back injury, to run a race (between 5K and half marathon) that will make the 80th percentile in the national age group rankings. Big Lar will make his marathon debut in Eugene 2009. His personal bests: 10K 39:38 Scandia 2007
5K 19:17 Turkey Stuffer 2008
