

Tod Harris

Considered by many to be the slowest guy in the van Tod "Hazel" Harris, usually is actually not. Nicknamed "Hazel" by his "friends", apparently for his super-efficient shufflepe style of running and reputation of earning very low Hacker points.

Tod has always run, and will never quit, but rarely wins. He has boxes of 2nd and 3rd place age group awards, but virtually no first place finishes of any kind. His PRs are 35:50 for 10K and 17:15 for 5K and he currently rides just under the 40 minute bubble in a 10K.
